

Did you know that regular visits to a health care provider help your child stay healthy and keep her learning on track? Tremendous growth and development take place in the early years, so it is crucial to prevent, detect, and treat health issues early.

bornlearning™

check up or just check in.

keep up with your child's health care through well visits and immunizations.

children are born learning. together, we shape their learning.

www.bornlearning.org

