

BAPTIST HOSPITAL VOLUNTEER SERVICES

PART I PRE-APPLICATION

Baptist Health Care is an Equal Opportunity Employer and
Is a Drug-Free Workplace

Applicants must complete both Part I Pre-Application and Part II Application to be considered for volunteering. Incomplete applications will not be accepted. It is very important to answer every question completely and honestly. Applications will only be valid for 60 days and, after that time, must be resubmitted.

Part I - Pre-Application

- *Read and Agree to Standards of Performance
- *Complete Background and Criminal History Check Questions
- * Read and Agree to the following Applicant Statements:
 1. Applicant Certification
 2. Authorization to Seek and Give References
 3. Code of Conduct Summary

Part II - Application

PART I - PRE-APPLICATION

STANDARD OF PERFORMANCE

A set of performance standards has been developed by the employees of Baptist Health Care to establish specific behaviors that all employees are expected to practice while on duty. All applicants are required to read Baptist Health Care's Standards of Performance and agree to comply with them prior to applying.

Standards of Performance

Attitude

- Our job is to serve our customers and provide high quality service with care and courtesy. Always thank customers for choosing Baptist Hospital. Exceed expectations.
- Acknowledge a customer's presence immediately. Smile and introduce yourself at once.

Appearance

- Be clean and professional.
- Follow dress code policies and wear your identification badge correctly at all times.
- Pick up litter and dispose of it properly. Clean up spills and return equipment to its proper place.

Communication

- Listen to customers. Be courteous. Don't use jargon. Keep patient information confidential.
- Acknowledge call lights by the fifth ring and respond to requests within three minutes. Always address the patient by name.
- Anticipate patients' needs so they will not have to use their call lights.
- Ensure continuity of care by reporting to relief caregivers before leaving the floor. Return promptly from breaks.
- Check on patients one hour before shift change to minimize requests during report.

Commitment to Co-workers

- Treat one another as professionals deserving courtesy, honesty and respect. Welcome newcomers.
- Avoid last-minute requests and offer to help fellow employee/volunteers whenever possible.
- Cooperate with one another. Don't undermine other people's work; praise whenever possible.
- Do not chastise or embarrass fellow employees/volunteers in the presence of others.
- Address problems by going to the appropriate supervisor.

Customer Waiting

- Educate families about processes and provide a comfortable atmosphere for waiting customers.
- An acceptable waiting time for scheduled appointments is ten minutes; it's one hour for non-scheduled appointments.
- Offer refreshments and an apology if a wait occurs. Always thank customers for waiting.
- Update family members periodically - at least hourly - while a customer is undergoing a procedure.

Elevator Etiquette

- Always smile and speak with fellow passengers; hold the door open for others.
- When transporting patients in wheelchairs, always face them toward the door and exit with care. If transporting a patient in a bed or stretcher, politely ask others to wait for another elevator.
- Pause before entering and elevator so you do not block anyone's exit. Step aside or to the back to make room for others.
- Walk departing guests to the elevator.

Privacy

- Make sure that patient information is kept confidential. Never discuss patients and their care in public areas.
- Knock before entering. Close curtains or doors during exams and procedures. Provide a robe or second gown if the patient is ambulating or in a wheelchair. Make sure all gowns are the right size for the patient.

Safety Awareness

- Report all accidents or incidents promptly.
- Correct or report any safety hazard you see.
- Use protective clothing, gear and procedures when appropriate.

Sense of Ownership

- Take pride in this organization as if you own it. Accept the responsibilities of your job.
- Adhere to policies and procedures. Live the values of this organization. Do the right thing.

_____ Initials - by initialing I signify that I have read, understand, and agree to comply with and practice the Standards outlined above.

BACKGROUND AND CRIMINAL HISTORY CHECK

Baptist Health Care conducts background screenings, including criminal histories.

You MUST answer the following questions completely and truthfully. A "YES" answer to these questions will not automatically bar you for volunteering. The nature, job relatedness, severity and date of criminal offense(s) and/or intentional torts in relation to the position for which you are applying will be considered. However, failure to answer the questions in this application truthfully and completely may result in your disqualification from consideration for volunteering or discharge from volunteering if you are accepted.

Please note that criminal offenses in your criminal history or intentional torts do not "disappear" from your record after any certain amount of time, and thus you MUST disclose all offenses and intentional torts in this application regardless of how long ago the offense occurred. If you have any questions, please ask to speak with a human resources manager.

1. Have you EVER in your life pled guilty to any crime or criminal offense, pled no contest (sometimes known as "nolo contendere") to any crime or criminal offense, had adjudication of guilt withheld for any crime or criminal offense, OR been convicted, fined, sentenced, placed on probation, incarcerated, placed on house detention (sometimes called "house arrest"), assessed any costs of criminal court or had any other criminal penalty imposed upon you?

YES NO

If No, Go To #2

1A. If the answer to Question 1 above is YES, please identify, explain and give details about the type(s) and circumstances of the crime(s) for criminal offense(s) or matters referred to in Question 1 above:

- 1B. For each crime or criminal offense or matter identified above, please identify:
 - a. The dates of the crime, conviction, plea and/or adjudication of guilt withheld AND
 - b. The penalty(ies), sentence, or disposition(s) imposed for each crime or criminal offense or matter.

1C. For each crime or criminal offense or matter identified above, please identify the State and location in which each crime or criminal offense or matter occurred:

Have you EVER in your life been a defendant or been sued in a civil action or lawsuit for an intentional tort (or an intentional civil wrong, such as, for example, trespass, civil theft, battery, assault, false arrest or imprisonment, employment discrimination or harassment, civil rights violations, slander, libel, fraud or deceptive trade practices)?

YES NO

If No, Go to #3

2A. If the answer to Question 2 is YES, please identify, explain, and give details about the type or nature of each intentional tort claimed against you and circumstances of that claim alleged against you

2B. For each intentional tort identified above, please:

- a. identify the dates of the civil action or lawsuit
 - b. describe and explain the final disposition or end result of each civil action or lawsuit,
AND
 - c. identify the date of that final disposition or end result

3. Are you currently on probation for a crime, criminal offenses, or in a criminal proceeding or have you been off probation LESS than one year?

YES NO

If YES – Unfortunately, our Employment policy is that an applicant must be out of the criminal probation system for at least 1 year to be considered for employment. Since you do not meet this criteria, you are not eligible to be considered for employment at this time. Thank you for your interest in Baptist Health Care..

Remember that failure to report accurately, truthfully and completely the information requested above may result in your being disqualified from consideration for employment/volunteering or discharged from employment/volunteering if you are hired. If you have any questions, please ask to speak with a human resources manager.

READ EACH STATEMENT CAREFULLY BEFORE COMPLETING:

The information provided and obtained from the background verification process will be used for employment purposes only and will not be shared with any other party.

California, Minnesota & Oklahoma Applicants Only: Please check this box if you would like a copy of the background check mailed to you. Minnesota and Oklahoma residents will receive a copy direct from Justifacts or its designee. California residents may receive a copy from either the prospective employer or Justifacts.

NOTICE: Under federal law, you have the right to request disclosure of the nature and scope of our investigation by providing us with a written request within 60 days of our background investigation.

Subscriber certifies that consumer reports, as defined by the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. 1681 at seq. ("FCRA"), will be ordered only when intended to be used as a factor in establishing a consumer's eligibility for employment and that consumer credit information will be used for no other purposes. It is recognized and understood that the FCRA provides that anyone "who knowingly and willfully obtains information on a consumer from a consumer reporting agency" (such as Justifacts) "under false pretenses shall be fined not more than $2,500 or imprisoned not more than two years or both."

Fair Credit Reporting Act Notification

Baptist Health Care (the "company") intends to obtain and use a consumer report or an investigative consumer report from Justifacts Credential Verification, Inc, an external consumer reporting agency for employment purposes. These purposes may include but are not limited to:

- considering your application for employment;
- making a decision whether to offer you employment with the company;
- deciding whether to continue your employment (if you are hired by the company);
- doing periodic rescreening of current employees, and/or;
- making any other employment decisions affecting you.

A consumer reporting agency is a person or business that regularly assembles or evaluates consumer credit information or other information on consumers. As an applicant or an employee, you are considered a "consumer" under the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

A consumer report may include information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living, which is used or collected for employment purposes. An investigative consumer report also involves personal interviews with sources such as employers, educators, etc.

You have a right to request disclosures of the nature and scope of any investigative consumer report that the company obtains about you. You also have other rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, a summary of which is available at: <https://app.justifacts.com/pdfs/SummaryOfRightsUnderTheFCRA.pdf>

ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND AUTHORIZATION

I hereby acknowledge receipt of this disclosure and that Baptist Health Care may obtain consumer reports and investigative consumer reports about me from a consumer reporting agency and that they may consider information in consumer reports and investigative consumer reports as part of their decision making process regarding any aspect of my application for employment and/or continued employment with the company including periodic rescreening of current employees. I also acknowledge that I have received a copy of the Summary of Rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

By selecting AGREE below, I acknowledge that I am creating an electronic signature and that I understand it will be legally binding and enforceable as the legal equivalent of a handwritten signature.

State Specific Notices

Notice to California Residents:

Under Section 1786.22 of the California Civil Code, you have the right to request from Justifacts (5250 Logan Ferry Rd, Murrysville PA 15626 - 800-356-6885, www.justifacts.com), upon proper identification, the nature and substance of all information in its files on you, including the sources of information, and the recipients of any reports on you to whom Justifacts has previously furnished within the three-year period preceding your request. Files maintained on a consumer shall be made available for the consumer's visual inspection, as follows: (1) In-person, if he appears in person and furnishes proper identification. A copy of his file shall also be available to the consumer for a fee not to exceed the actual costs of duplication services provided. (2) By certified mail, if he makes a written request, with proper identification, for copies to be sent to a specified addressee. (3) A summary of all information contained in files on a consumer and required to be provided by Section 1786.10 shall be provided by telephone, if the consumer has made a written request, with proper identification for telephone disclosure, and the toll charge, if any, for the telephone call is prepaid by or charged directly to the consumer. Justifacts shall provide trained personnel to explain to you any information furnished, including coded information. You are permitted to be accompanied by one other person of your choosing, who shall furnish reasonable identification. Justifacts may require you to furnish a written statement granting permission to Justifacts to discuss your file in such person's presence.

Massachusetts Residents:

You have the right, upon written request made within a reasonable period of time after your receipt of this disclosure, to receive from the Company a copy of such report upon its completion.

New York Residents:

You have the right, upon written request made within a reasonable period of time after your receipt of this disclosure, to receive from the Company whether or not an investigative consumer report was requested, and if such report was requested, the name and address of the consumer reporting agency to whom the request was made. Upon furnishing you the name and address of the consumer reporting agency to whom the request was made, you shall also be informed of your right to inspect and receive a copy of such report by contacting that agency.

Vermont Residents:

Per 9 V.S.A. § 2480e. Consumer consent:

- a. A person shall not obtain the credit report of a consumer unless:
 - 1. the report is obtained in response to the order of a court having jurisdiction to issue such an order; or
 - 2. the person has secured the consent of the consumer, and the report is used for the purpose consented to by the consumer.
- b. Credit reporting agencies shall adopt reasonable procedures to assure maximum possible compliance with subsection (a) of this section.
- c. Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect:
 - 1. the ability of a person who has secured the consent of the consumer pursuant to subdivision (a)(2) of this section to include in his or her request to the consumer permission to also obtain credit reports, in connection with the same transaction or extension of credit, for the purpose of reviewing the account, increasing the credit line on the account, for the purpose of taking collection action on the account, or for other legitimate purposes associated with the account; and
 - 2. the use of credit information for the purpose of prescreening, as defined and permitted from time to time by the Federal Trade Commission. (Added 1991, No. 246 (Adj. Sess.), § 1.)

Washington Residents:

You have the right, upon written request made within a reasonable period of time after your receipt of this disclosure, to receive from the Company a complete and accurate disclosure of the nature and scope of the investigation requested by the Company. Additionally, you have certain rights and remedies under Washington law as summarized below:

A SUMMARY OF YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THE WASHINGTON FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT:

The Washington Fair Credit Reporting Act, located at Chapter 19.182 RCW, substantially parallels the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act and the rights and remedies set forth in the Federal Trade Commission's Summary of Rights, except that, effective July 22, 2007, the Washington State law imposes greater limitations on the reasons for which an employer may obtain a consumer report. Beginning July 22, 2007, an employer may not obtain a consumer report that indicates the consumer's credit worthiness, credit standing, or credit capacity, unless (1) the information is substantially job related and the employer's reasons for using the information are disclosed in writing, or (2) the information is required by law.

You may exercise your rights and remedies under this Act by contacting:

CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

Volunteer Services

All patients of Baptist Health Care have the right to have their medical information accessed only by those who are directly involved in their care or in the monitoring of its quality. Such information is considered confidential and will be available to other individuals only with the patient's written authorization or that of his/her legally authorized representative.

Employees and Volunteers of Baptist Health Care are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of patient information. Unauthorized release of patient information (deliberate or accidental) is considered unethical and contrary to the values and mission of Baptist Health Care.

In addition, information about Baptist Health Care business, including information about co-workers, is to be treated as confidential.

Confidentiality of computerized information is protected by the use of unique passwords. These passwords are the responsibility of the user assigned to them and will not be shared. Computer systems will not be used to access information that the user does not have a need to know as part of the performance of his/her job responsibilities.

Failure to comply with Baptist Health Care policies and procedures regarding confidentiality could lead to disciplinary action up to and including discharge.

I have read and understand the above information.
